

Softplus98 Kft

Softplus 98 KFT has been established by 3 hungarian citizens in 1998.

The main profiles of the company are the following:

- software development.
- microcontroller based electronic development and manufacturing.
- IT trainings.

All founders of the company have high degree of EE and IT professions.

In the past 16 years the company contributed in several projects either as prime contractor or subcontractor.

In several projects Softplus 98 KFT has implemented a full vertical stack of layers beginning from hardware design through microcontroller code to the software components running on PC.

Main areas where the company is doing its contribution are the following:

- medical equipments and evaluating softwares (ECG, BP, EEG).
- measure and controll systems.
- management softwares (component development in National Court IT System).

Gábor Kocsis is the majority owner and managing director of the company.

He has 27 years experience in IT sector.

He has contributed in several large software projects including some international projects as well.

Currently he is working as a Technical Architect in a large e-commerce project.

His technical skills are the following:

- Programming languages: C#, C, C++, Javascript.
- Web technologies: ASP.NET MVC and Web API, SignalR, Node.js, client side Javascript, JQuery
- Database technologies: SQL Server, Oracle, NoSQL (Cassandra)
- Other: cloud platforms (Azure, Amazon AWS), messaging (RabbitMQ).